

Final Project Evaluation:

Student Name: _____

Points	5	3	1
Required Elements – Did the presentation include all required elements?	Project included all required elements	Project included most required elements	Project did not include all required elements
Accuracy —Was the information correct and supported by autobiography essay?	Information was correct and supported by autobiography essay	Presentation was lacking in content as required in instructions.	Information was either not provided, correct, or supported by essay
Figurative Language – Did the presentation include all figurative language elements?	Project included all required figurative language elements	Project included some of the required figurative language elements	Project did not include all of the required figurative language elements
Presentation —Did the student demonstrate careful planning and construction of project?	student demonstrated careful planning and construction of project	student demonstrated some attempt to careful planning and construction of project	Student did not demonstrate any attempts to careful planning and construction of project
Focus —Did the student follow his/her chosen format? Did he/she provide examples and details?	Both, format was consistently followed and quality examples and details were provided.	Either format was consistently followed, or examples and details were provided, but not both.	Format was not followed. No examples or details were provided.
Mechanics —Did the writer proof his or her work? Were there any punctuation, spelling, or grammar errors?	No punctuation, spelling, or grammar errors were found.	Three or less punctuation, spelling, or grammar errors found	More than three punctuation, spelling, or grammar errors were found.
Design —Does the project capture the audience’s attention?	The project was well designed and interesting to view.	Some design elements were interesting.	The project was lacking in design.

